

Claire Bouteille

Chief Management Officer
International Energy Agency

Claire Bouteille joined the IEA as Chief Management Officer in May 2013. As head of the Office of Management and Administration (OMA), she has overall responsibility for the Finance Unit, the Information Systems Unit, the Building and Operations Unit, and Human Resource issues.

She was formerly the Head of Corporate Services at the British Embassy Paris, Foreign and Commonwealth Office, with direct responsibility for the leadership and management of that section, and the responsibility for human resources, finance and budget management, IT, communications, security, transport and logistics, and the bilateral Ambassador's Residence.

From 2007 to 2010, Ms Bouteille was Head of Mission at the British Consulate in Lyon, France. Her career also includes wide-ranging management experience in international markets for British, French, Swiss and American companies in computer software and chemicals while working in the United States, France and Great Britain. A British national, she holds an MBA from Euromed, École Supérieure de Commerce in Marseille.